

COMING THIS SPRING

FREE Webinar Series

May 6th, 2020

What's Happening in Washington DC ?

Start Time: 1pm Eastern

Fast moving events in Washington, D.C. challenge the U.S. food and agricultural industries on a daily basis, while progress on actions that could improve the animal food business environment often occur at a slow pace. This webinar will explore the current state of play of macro political issues impacting food and agriculture, expectations for Congressional actions this year, developments in the Trump Administration and agencies overseeing the animal food sector, updates on COVID-19 and how we chart a path for continued success in this dynamic environment.
